

SPERRY'S FLAG FLIES Pacific Squadron Awaits Order

MORGAN'S PARK IS NOT GIVEN PERMIT

Application for License Was Withdrawn

When the Board of Supervisors was called to order by Supervisor Joseph Kelly this morning Attorney Abe E. Leach brought up the protest against granting a license for the road house of Morgan & Meyer. He said he would like to have the matter considered by a full board, and he would like to have Mr. Mitchell present.

Attorney Max Marcuse, representing Morgan & Meyer, asked that the testimony be taken at once, and it was so ordered.

P. D. Post, secretary and treasurer of the Great Western Realty Company, testified that he knew Mr. Howard, who testified that he was discharged for opposing the license of Morgan & Meyer.

Post said that Manager Lennan objected to Howard's activity in the license matter, and told Howard to cut out his temporary business or quit the company, so Howard left the next day.

Saw Nothing Wrong.
Thos. Carroll, constable at Fruitvale, testified that he visits the Morgan & Meyer place every day in his official capacity. He had never heard any complaint against the place. All saloons are had enough, but this was no worse than other saloons. All are about alike.

Attorney Leach wanted to know if other saloons have rooms for transient lodgers.

Attorney Marcuse objected to having the matter presented in this manner. The Morgan & Meyer place is a hotel, he said. "I have been in town a long time and have been down the line somewhat, but this is the first time that I ever know anybody who had the crust to call Morgan & Meyer's Park a hotel," said Leach.

Ary Persiflage
"There are many things for you to learn," said Marcuse. "And right here I object to having this place presented as a saloon with rooms attached. We call it a hotel with a bar attachment."

Access was gained by means of the basement door, and Mrs. Koenig suspects a gardener, who had been in her employ for about two months, and whom she had seen shortly before she went out, but who has since disappeared. The police are investigating the matter.

A burglar, who gained entrance to the hotel Elk, 1008 Larkin street, last evening by forcing the rear door with a jimmy, stole the coin boxes from the four telephones and made his escape.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 15.—Definite information was received here this morning that the bandits who robbed the Wells-Fargo safe at French, N. M., yesterday afternoon securing $34,000, were seen at 3:50 this morning near Emery station on the Colorado and Southern Railway, sixty miles south of here. They were heading for Cimarron county. The robbers were riding a roan and two gray horses. The information was from the agent at Emery. Railroad officials have ordered out a special with posses. ADMIRAL SPERRY, WHO NOW COMMANDS THE BIG FLEET

THOMAS IS NOW FULLY RETIRED

Usual Salute of 13 Guns Makes Ceremony.

Pacific Squadron Not to Sail Until It Gets Further Orders Despite the Many Rumors to the Contrary.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Rear Admiral Charles H. Thomas, lowered his flag on the battleship Connecticut today as commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet and the flag of Rear Admiral Charles Sperry was run up at the main truck. The usual rear admiral's salute of thirteen guns was fired by the warships in honor of the new commander. The change of command was accompanied by no further ceremony than that which attends the change of fleet commanders.

Pacific Squadron Is to Remain.

With the exception of the armored cruiser South Dakota, which sailed yesterday for the southern coast of California on a speed test, the vessels of the Pacific squadron are still in the harbor, the date of their departure having been indefinitely postponed. It is understood that they will remain here until further orders are received. The transfer of the command of the Atlantic fleet from Rear Admiral Thomas to Rear Admiral Sperry, who will take the vessels around the world, and the departure of the torpedo boat flotilla for Sacramento were the two most notable events of today in connection with the presence of the warships. Little ceremony accompanied the transfer of command and the dark torpedo boats started on their trip to the state capital without attracting attention. The progress of the flotilla up the river is being watched with much interest and those on the boats are assured of a warm welcome on arrival at their destination. During the day over a thousand blue-jackets were conveyed through the city in observation cars and shown various points of interest. Santa Rosa Carnival. Many officers and men went to Santa Rosa as the guests of the citizens of that place, and participated in the annual rose

THAW DECLARED INSANE BY TWO STATES' EXPERTS

Alienist Calls Him Incurable Paranoiac

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 15.—An expert but to give the court a in which the latter told of epilepsy or statement of Thaw's conduct during the three months he was in Matteawan, Dr. Baker related conversations with Thaw nervous excitations suffered by a sister and an uncle. At seven years of age Thaw said he had St. Vitus dance. He told Baker, the latter said, that at 18 he used alcohol in moderation. He denied ever using drugs. Thaw told the witness that at his trial some of the doctors had greatly exaggerated their estimates of his condition, that they had in mind a nephew of his, whom they had examined, who traveled under the same name and was often taken for him. Baker said Thaw said to him: "If I was ever insane in my life the attack began one minute before I shot White and ended half a minute afterward."

WATCH FOR RED WHITE AND BLUE PARACHUTES AT IDORA PARK 4:30 TODAY

PLATFORM ADOPTED BY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—The Republican State convention adopted the following platform:

"The Republicans of California, in State Convention assembled, at Sacramento, May 14, 1908, as expressive of their views on the political issues of the day, do declare:

"First—We reaffirm our belief in and adherence to the principles announced in the Republican national platform of 1904, which by their enforcement have so greatly promoted the prosperity and greatness of the nation.

"Second—The administration of the affairs of the nation by the Republican party since it came into power in 1897 merits and receives our unqualified approbation. Under the direction of that kindly heart and wise brain that animated our beloved leader, McKinley, the finances of the country were restored to the normal condition, protection to American industries was assured, the honor of the country was maintained, and our glorious banner was carried in triumph through battles over land and sea. His successor, no less wise, has carried out to the fullest extent the policies inaugurated by his lamented predecessor, and in addition has, by his courageous attack upon corporate evils and unjust monopolies, stirred the public conscience and aroused the public heart to that extent that the country at large indorses, as we do, the policies of President Theodore Roosevelt.

OFFICIALS ARE PRAISED

"Third—Our Republican governor has, by his devotion to the complicated business of his office and the care with which he has managed the State institutions of California, and by the honest and efficient manner in which he has administered the affairs of our State, proved that we made no mistake when in 1906 we selected as the standard-bearer of our party James N. Gillett.

"Fourth—We commend the course and approve the labors of United States Senators Perkins and Flint and the Representatives from this State and congratulate the voters and taxpayers of California upon having such able, efficient and faithful public servants in Washington.

"Fifth—We insist upon the continuation of the policy of exclusion of Asiatic labor by the rigid enforcement of the present exclusion laws and the enactment of other laws, or by the effective diplomatic arrangements.

NEED OF GREATER NAVY

"Sixth—We commend the action of the President in sending the fleet of American war ships to the Pacific Coast. Its voyage demonstrated the ability of the American sailor, engineer and admiral alike. It also made manifest the necessity of maintaining and increasing our navy, to the end that while the Star Spangled Banner may always stand as an emblem of peace, it shall also give notice to the world that the United States of America can defend its soil, its Oriental commerce, its possessions and its people against all assaults of any and all adversaries. The visit of the fleet has shown the necessity of enlarging and increasing the efficiency of the United States navy, yard at Mare Island and the building of new ones at San Diego and other proper places on the Pacific Coast. Wherefore we pledge our Senators and Representatives in Congress to support all and every measure designed to increase the strength and efficiency of the American navy and to secure the enlargement of the Mare Island navy yard and the establishment in the bay of San Francisco of a naval base with a dry dock capable of receiving the largest vessels.

WOULD ASK MERCHANT MARINE

"Seventh—We favor the giving of suitable aid to the upbuilding of the American merchant marine, to the end that that great industry may be fostered until it attains its rightful proportions, so that the carrying trade of the country may be under its own flag, thus providing an effective auxiliary to our navy, and we will be no longer saddened by the spectacle of American battleships having their coal supplies carried by foreign colliers. We ask that all unnecessary and burdensome restrictions now placed upon American shipowners and American lines of ocean transportation be removed so as to place them upon an equality in their competition with foreign owned vessels, which now threaten to drive the American merchant flag from the ocean.

"Eighth—We favor all measures having for their legitimate object the preservation of the forests of our country in the interests of the people.

THE IRRIGATION PROBLEM

"Ninth—We thank the Republican majority in Congress for their enactment of laws providing for a national system of irrigation, and for their liberal appropriations of money to carry into effect the plan devised by the United States engineers to make irrigation a success. We pledge our hearty support to any and all proper efforts to conserve the water and to wisely govern its distribution, so that the so-called arid lands, embracing so many millions of acres, may be redeemed from their desert state and rendered habitable for the thousands who are anxious to rear homes for themselves upon the present barren fields of America. The regulation and sale of reserves should be provided for under such conditions that the development of the industries of the State will not be interfered with, and so that the people may not be deprived of the effective competition which the possession of sufficient water should assure them.

"Tenth—The recent financial stringency calls for legislation which will prevent a like occurrence and will enable the people of the country to have currency enough in times of panic to carry on their legitimate avocations without resort to technically illegal devices. We have faith that the Republican majority in Congress, now earnestly engaged in this labor, will succeed in perfecting a sound system of finance which will effectively regulate the currency of the Nation.

ENDORSERS FIGHT AGAINST TRUSTS

"Eleventh—We favor the prosecution of all illegal and unjust trusts whenever and wherever found, not in a spirit of destruction to vested interests, but solely with the desire to curb improper ambitions of so-called captains of industry, while deriving all the benefit possible from these organizations of capital.

"Twelfth—We favor liberal appropriations by Congress for the purpose of protecting the San Pedro harbor and for the purpose of improving New York bay.

"Thirteenth—We indorse the proposed amendment to the Constitution of California regarding the enactment of a direct primary law and recommended its adoption by the people.

IMPROVEMENT OF WATER WAYS

"Fourteenth—The Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers and their tributaries form the only highways of commerce within this State and give to the farmer, merchant and manufacturer a competitive line of transportation for their products. The Republican party has ever been the friend of these highways and the work now being carried on for their improvement is of inestimable value to California. We favor large appropriations and continuous work upon those streams, to the end that ocean vessels can again ascend the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers as they did in days gone by. We pledge the utmost efforts of our party and its candidates to carry on this enterprise, for in this successful prosecution will be found the best remedy for any overcharges by any transportation companies in our State.

"Fifteenth—The Republican party has ever been mindful of the duty that a nation owes to its citizens to care for their rights to possess and enjoy their property, their liberty and their lives, and it will ever be found ready at all times under all circumstances and in all countries to give complete protection to every American citizen in his constitutional rights whenever or however they may be assailed.

TAKT FOR THE PRESIDENCY

"Sixteenth—We realize that the large vote at the unofficial primary held May 5, 1908, in favor of Roosevelt as a candidate for President indicates to a large extent the feelings (in which we share) of the people of California toward him. Knowing, however, as we do from his oft-repeated verbal and written declarations, that he will not be a candidate for the nomination, and that he could not, in honor, nor could we in decency, ask him to violate those pledges, and sincerely desirous to carry out his policies we favor the nomination and instruct our delegates to the National Convention to support by all

REGULARS HAVE THE PARTY REINS

In such Assembly district was to be entitled to one member on said State Central Committee, to be named by the delegates from each county in such Assembly district, the delegates from each Assembly district to report through their chairman to the secretary.

Reports on Business.

The committee on credentials reported in the matter of the contest of A. E. Culver, L. S. Wilson, Herbert A. Evans, C. H. Cowan, George D. Butler, W. V. Barham and Oscar H. Woods, Siskiyou county, First Assembly district. After due consideration, the committee recommended that the delegates from the temporary roll retain their seats.

In the matter of a notice of contest in the Eighteenth Assembly district, San Diego county, no contest having been filed, the committee recommended that the delegates as returned on the temporary roll retain their seats.

No Contestant Appeared.

In the matter of the contest in the thirty-eighth and fortieth Assembly districts, notices of which had been filed with the committee, no contestants appeared and the official returns of the registrar of voters of the city and county of San Francisco having been filed, it was ordered that the delegates as returned on the temporary roll be seated.

In the matter of the contest in the Nineteenth Assembly district, by Henry Isham F. P. Gage, Ray McFarland, E. B. Hinman and William T. Botzback, it was ordered that the delegates on the temporary roll retain their seats.

Credentials having been received from E. N. Rutherford, Nevada county, it was ordered that his name be added to the temporary roll.

Credentials having been received from P. J. Murray, it was recommended that those men be seated as delegates and that the name of J. M. Fogarty be stricken from the roll.

No credentials were received from Mariposa county.

The committee recommended that no proxies be admitted and that, in the absence of any delegate, the majority of the delegates from the Assembly district could be entitled to cast the vote of such absentees. In Assembly districts in one portion of which the primary law is mandatory and in another portion of which the primary law was not mandatory, the majority of the delegates from each subdivision of such Assembly district should cast the vote of such absentees.

Gillett Talks.

Governor J. N. Gillett was introduced. His excellency said that he had come to the gathering to spend a short time to see the Republican convention. He wanted to thank them for the kindness they had shown him in considering him as a candidate for delegate at large to the National Republican Convention in Chicago. He wanted also to thank people who had expressed themselves on the same subject through correspondence.

"I want to say," continued the governor, "that I cannot go East because I am not feeling well and because, for some weeks, I have been acting as assistant vice commander of the army, and the way from San Diego to San Francisco and now I shall have to continue to do it in the same capacity when the mosquito fleet arrives at Sacramento."

A Great Honor.

The speaker said that he knew of no greater honor or pleasure that he could enjoy than attending the national convention of the great Republican party. It was the greatest honor that could be conferred upon any person to be selected to attend such a body.

The speaker then paid a tribute to President Roosevelt and referring to Secretary Taft, said:

"Mr. Taft has presided over the War Department and I hope this convention will pass a resolution endorsing the candidacy of William H. Taft. I am satisfied that this State can rally around Mr. Taft and that we ought to be united. If we do this we will have done something that will tend to the development of both the party and the State."

Several contests were then summarily disposed of.

Dr. Crawford Nominates.

Nominations for delegates at large to the National Republican Convention at Chicago were then in order and Dr. A. K. Crawford of Oakland placed Judge H. A. Melvin before the delegates. His speech appears elsewhere in full.

W. R. Davis of Oakland placed in nomination Jacob H. Neff of San Francisco.

John T. Edwile of San Francisco spoke in favor of M. H. De Young of the same place.

He was followed by Lee C. Gates of Los Angeles who nominated ex-Senator Thomas L. Bard of Ventura.

Gates started to criticize M. H. De Young by reading an editorial which appeared in Wednesday's issue of that paper.

Gates Not Allowed to Criticize.

The matter-like gavel of Chairman Knight came down twice with resounding cracks.

"You have," said Knight, "no right to read any article in which you have sought to place your man in nomination but no attack upon the editor or proprietor of the Chronicle will be allowed."

Gates said he wanted to be in order but he believed that a paper which was operated by a man who sought office was the proper place to seek for information regarding that candidate.

"He is nominating Thomas L. Bard," said the chair, "a most estimable gentleman. It makes no difference what the Chronicle may have said, what the Call may say or what the Examiner may say, it will be out of order."

Gates then directed his remarks to Bard.

H. M. Hurd of Los Angeles placed the name of Harrison Gray Otis before the convention.

D. C. Collier of San Diego nominated George A. Knight.

Frank G. Trivett of Los Angeles nominated Col. E. A. Forbes of Marysville.

Grove L. Johnson, seconded the nomination of M. H. DeYoung.

Dr. Chester H. Rowley of Fresno was also placed in nomination.

Four Nominated.

A vote was then taken and resulted as follows: George A. Knight, 419; H. A. Melvin, 417; M. H. DeYoung, 346; Jacob Neff, 297; Otis, 296; Forbes, 247; Bard, 236; Rowell, 218.

Alternates were then chosen as already stated.

Alameda County's Vote.

The vote by Assembly districts in Alameda county was as follows:

Forty-sixth district—Melvin, Knight, DeYoung and Otis, 8 each.

Forty-seventh—Melvin, Knight, DeYoung, Neff, 7 each.

Forty-eighth—Neff, Forbes, Bard and Rowell, 6 each.

Forty-ninth—Melvin, 2; Neff, 6; Otis, 6; Bard, 6 and Rowell 5.

Fiftieth—Melvin, 2; Neff, 9; Forbes, 9; Bard, 8; Rowell 4.

Fifty-first—Melvin, Knight, Neff, Otis, 8 each.

Fifty-second—Melvin, Knight, DeYoung, Neff, 2 each and Neff, Forbes, Bard and Rowell 8 each.

Thanks Returned.

On motion of Frank K. Mott of Oakland, a vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the convention.

On motion of W. R. Davis of Oakland, a vote of thanks was tendered the citizens of Sacramento for their hospitality.

Adjourned sine die.

JUDGE MELVIN PLACED IN NOMINATION BY CRAWFORD

jurist Praised for His Meritorious Record

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—In nominating Judge Henry A. Melvin as delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention, A. K. Crawford made the following speech:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: As a representative of the Fifty-first Assembly District I desire to place in nomination one of our own number, and bespeak for him your support as one of the delegates-at-large to be sent from California to the national Republican convention in Chicago next June. There is no division of opinion or sentiment, regarding his name being chosen by his fellow townsmen. They were, indeed, so much in earnest that they instructed us before the primary what our duties were to be, and then turned out like men at the polls and gave us a majority of two to one against an opposition ticket, so that we might do all in our power to promote the selection of the Honorable Henry A. Melvin as one of the delegates-at-large.

Votes Count for Little.

"When that great convention meets in Chicago it will not be California's poor record of votes that will give her prominence or recognition. With righter States numerically stronger on the floor than she is, the convention itself need give her but scant courtesy. When you know that the ten strongest States carry out-vote the other thirty-six, if they are so agreed, you will appreciate that votes alone will count for little. California's importance, geographically, climatically and, I may say, nautilically, deserves recognition far in excess of her popular vote. Therefore, I say to you, gentlemen, that you must mix your delegates to Chicago as Sir Joshua Reynolds mixed his paintings with brains."

Six-Foot Variety of Brains.

"In a field of grain averaging four feet high there can be no six-foot stalks, but in an average field of six feet we will find good seven foot stalks of the same substance and character as the rest of the field, but over-topping it all and nodding gracefully in the warm summer breeze. In this assemblage of the six-foot variety of brains we have those who, by natural selection, environment, education or concentration of energy, stand higher than the average man, and these are they whom we desire to go forth into the arena of the brainiest men of the country. Then we can rest in the assurance that at all times, and at all hazards, the trust reposed in them will be upheld, and the honor of our glorious State protected. Who shall these men be?

Fitting and Proper Man.

"Allow me the high privilege of naming one who needs no introduction at my hands; who is not an unknown quantity; who, by birthright, by education in the public schools and in the State University, by his study of the law and his admission to the bar, by his public service as justice of the peace in Brooklyn township, and by his upright and meritorious performance of his duties in his present position of judge of the Superior Court of Alameda county—the Honorable Henry A. Melvin—is, in my humble estimation, a fitting and proper man to select for us the next President of these United States. He will reflect credit upon California, as he has already done on the judiciary."

"Is this all? No; for he is a man of brilliant attainments and endowments beyond the point of his erudition and legally trained mind. He is endowed with a most melodious voice and can sing like a Pol Plocean; he has the gift of oratory and can at will move his hearers to tears or laughter; he is clever at repartee, and can plume his talk with thousands and ones of inimitable stories; and, moreover, he is one of the kindest and most genial men I have ever known."

In the Limelight.

"He has been in the lime-light of his native district almost since he passed his teens, where, it is said, a prophet hath no honor; but such is the character and personality of 'Harry Melvin' that nothing in the gifts of his fellow townsmen is too high or too sacred for them to withhold from him."

"All they have is his; his, without the talking, and they look confidently forward to his receiving in the future emoluments of high national importance, for he has not yet arrived at the age when we, of the medical fraternity, think it proper to chloroform him. Besides, which, my friend, Ben Woolner, says that 'He is a winner, for he looks like Taft from the neck down.'"

There are four delegates-at-large to be chosen by this convention. These is potency in the numeral 4. The Egyptian calendar was divided into four seasons. They put four suits in a deck of cards, and, as some of you possibly know, there are only four aces in a pack. In Biblical history four is an equally prominent figure, and in our own country the figure four is particularly in evidence. The fourth of July is the natal day of our country, the fourth of March is the date upon which our Presidents are inaugurated, and the term of office is for four years.

"In asking your voice and your suffrages for the Honorable Henry A. Melvin as a delegate from California, I appeal for equal discrimination on your part in your selection of the other three, so that we may have a galaxy to represent us in Chicago that cannot well be matched. With such men to choose our next President we will have no foe to fear next November."

BIGGEST EVENT IN THE HISTORY OF OAKLAND

Thousands at Idora Park at Early Morning Hours

Sailors and Officers Attend, and Fond Mothers With Children Picnic Among Flowers

EDITH MASON.

TOM PERSEE.

Is THE TRIBUNE Day in the park and before the gates of the park close late this evening a day of unalloyed pleasure will have been among the many splendid attractions of the big amusement resort. Tickered began going at an early hour this morning. When the gates of the park arrived about 7:30 o'clock to find several hundred people waiting to be admitted. One would think that they had gone to the park for breakfast. By 10 o'clock 2,000 had passed through the gates and the stream of people in the park was steady. Every car der that all having THE TRIBUNE tickets and desiring to skate might have the opportunity. This work was readily accomplished under the direction of Superintendent James Pilling of the park and Manager W. F. Cort of the rink.

Needless to state there was a rush for the various concessions as soon as they were ready for the entertainment of the crowd. The great L. A. Thompson Scenic Railway was patronized as fast as the trains could be loaded. And certainly it was enjoyed. Both children and adults fairly screamed with delight as they were taken over the wonderful ride. Charles Hill, local representative of L. A. Thompson, the designer and builder, extended every possible courtesy to the bearers of THE TRIBUNE tickets.

Near by was the beautiful Carrousal with its melodious organ filling the park with music. Thousands anxious to ride on the handsome animals and appreciate the treatment they received at the hands of S. A. McCartney. They will long remember the Carrousal.

Over at the Ticker there was another immense crowd. The cars were filled as rapidly as possible and those who were too timid or faint-hearted to take the thrilling ride had plenty of fun as they watched the cars come whirling, skidding, bumping and bounding down the winding course. The Ticker proved a genuine sensation and was so popular that it was pressed to the limit from the start of the day's fun.

The gates of Idora Park also received its share of the sun-seekers and it certainly rewarded all who entered it for a view of its splendid scenic trip. Mr. Langley and Mr. Drake were conspicuous in the extreme and did everything possible to help make the day a success.

There was a steady stream pouring down the Helter-Skelter and the Circle Wave was kept up to its full capacity. So were the Circle Swing, the Roller Coaster Toboggan, the Barrel of Fun and the Donkeys.

Idora Park today presents a scene of great animation. The women are in their light summer dress and many of them are carrying flags in honor of the visiting officers and men of the Atlantic fleet. The sailors began arriving early and were not long falling into the spirit of the day. All those who could obtain shore leave from the battleships today availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting Oakland's famous amusement park.

The arrangements for handling the immense crowd were perfect. Superintendent Pilling was in general charge and his efficiency and experience contributed largely to the comfort and pleasure of the visitors.

All day and until late this evening the festivities will last. The concessions will undoubtedly be crowded. Every hour sees a thousand more pleasure-seekers added to the throng in the big park. The day will undoubtedly prove a memorable one.

Tonight comes the charming comic opera, "The Fortune Teller," with the artists of the Idora Park Opera Company at their best. The performance will be one that cannot be missed without regret. The cast is a notable one, fully capable of making the most of the exquisite music and abundant fun of Victor Herbert's masterpiece. In it will be Edith Mason, Thomas H. Persee, Ferlie Hartman, Charles Ailing, Ann Tasker, Walter De Leon, Joseph Fogarty, George Knowlton, Walter Catlett, Ethel Lewis, Muggins Davis, and other favorites, with as large and pretty a chorus as can be found anywhere in the country.

The gates of Idora Park will not close until well near midnight, so when THE TRIBUNE goes to press today there remain yet many hours of fun. Indeed, the festivities will in all likelihood reach their climax during the evening. The crowd is growing larger, and it is growing gayer and more appreciative of the many forms of entertainment offered on every hand.

TRIBUNE PARK DAY IS A BIG SUCCESS

Beautiful Idora Thronged With Happy People

THE TRIBUNE, as is always the case, has kept its promise to the people and afforded its friends and the public generally one of the most enjoyable days in the open air which has ever been experienced in this or any other city on the Pacific coast. If the holders of the tickets and the coupons attached were required to pay for admission to the concessions in question they would have to expend between $1.50 and $2.00 each.

One may therefore form an estimate of the amount of money has thus been saved the friends of this paper and at the same time an estimate of the great amount of pleasure which has been crowded into one day and evening for the people of this and other cities where THE TRIBUNE circulates as a consequence of the liberality of the management of this paper.

Coupons for Concessions.

For several days past this paper has been distributing free tickets to people of this city for a day's pleasure in the park in question. These tickets not only provided for admission to the park, but they entitled the holders to free admission to a dozen of the concessions which are there to be found. If the holders of the tickets and the coupons attached were required to pay for admission to the concessions in question they would have to expend between $1.50 and $2.00 each.

One may therefore form an estimate of the amount of money has thus been saved the friends of this paper and at the same time an estimate of the great amount of pleasure which has been crowded into one day and evening for the people of this and other cities where THE TRIBUNE circulates as a consequence of the liberality of the management of this paper.

Expense Disregarded.

Of course, it will not be gainsaid that this novel way of making people happy has been a source of expense to THE TRIBUNE, but that fact has not been considered in the desire of THE TRIBUNE to show its appreciation of the favor in the way of a constantly increasing circulation and unprecedented advertising patronage which THE TRIBUNE is receiving from its friends wherever it is read, which means all over the state.

The festivity is in progress as THE TRIBUNE goes to press and will be continued tonight so that those who will not have time to go today may also have an opportunity of spending a few hours in serene enjoyment of the manifold means of recreation which are to be found in Idora Park.

Beautiful Trees.

To say nothing of the enjoyable concessions which are to be found in the park, it is a source of real rest and delight to sit beneath the beautiful trees of the park and gaze upon the view which is kept in a condition of emerald green. There one may enjoy the sight of people in all moods of merriment, seeking pleasure in a most interesting manner, to hear the music of the bands, the laughter of innocent childhood and to marvel at the enterprise and the display of money which have succeeded in bringing within an area of twenty acres so many things to enable one to prolong one's life by indulging in recreation which after all is the highest attainment in the building up of the human system from youth to age.

Exceeded Expectations.

THE TRIBUNE had expected that there would be a great gathering at the park. The management of the place was of the same opinion, but the throng actually exceeded the anticipations of both. While there was not a moment of the day that there were not thousands of people in the great pleasure ground, at the same time there was ample room for thousands more. There was as a consequence, no crowding, no struggling to secure admission to popular features and no untoward incidents which so often deprive the persons subjected to the unpleasantness of the pleasure which he or she so eagerly sought.

Long before the time for the opening of the gates this morning there were at least two hundred people waiting at the entrance of the park in order to be the first to partake of the hospitality of THE TRIBUNE and also that they might be enabled to visit every concession which their tickets entitled them to visit before the close of the day.

Not All Children.

The waiting but good-natured throng were not all children by any means. There were in it young men and maidens, fathers and mothers, sweethearts and wives and aged people bent with years and infirmity who felt that taking part in the outing and witnessing the sports of youngsters was about the only means of pleasure which their physical condition would enable them to enjoy.

When at length the gates were opened there was a dash of the expectant waiters into the enclosure and the rush was accompanied by a cheer of delight which showed how ardent had been the anticipation of the visitors for a day of fun.

The advance guard was not long in sole possession of the beautiful spot for the reason that every car on the Telegraph and Shattuck avenue lines which invest the park brought loads of pleasure seekers from all the towns on this side of the bay as far east as Hayward.

Everybody Kept Moving.

There was not a concession which was not filled at the outset. Care was taken to keep them from becoming uncomfortably crowded but there was not much danger of this for the reason that there were enough of the open resorts to keep the immense attendance moving and in the best of spirits.

Amusement Paradise.

The sight of these merry people of all ages and conditions in life was inspiring in the extreme. Their intermingling in an indefinite variety of clothing had a human kaleidoscope effect which was never witnessed before in this city. It was entrancing and will never be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of witnessing it.

This brilliancy and attractiveness was everywhere visible—in the marvelous L. A. Thompson scenic railway, the wonderful roller coaster, the carrousal, the great skating rink, the barrel of fun, the circle swing, the touring car, the roller coaster toboggan, the helter skelter, the circle wave and half a hundred other features which abound in this earthly amusement paradise.

Sailors Like Children.

An additional feature of interest was the presence of several thousand sailors from the Atlantic and Pacific fleets, who secured shore leave for the purpose of taking part in the festivities. The boys in blue entered into the spirit of the occasion with a heartiness which suggested that of childhood and which was singularly at variance with the calling they had adopted, viz: of standing behind the gun for the purpose of coming between the home of their birth and the onslaught of a foreign invader.

Balloon to Drop Money.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the feature will be the balloon ascension. This spectacle, also as it is, never loses its attractiveness for either old or young. But in this display, there will be more than the pleasure which may be experienced by simply gazing on the monster inflated as it shoots into the blue heavens, bearing with it its master navigator of the air, Professor Hamilton, who is surrounded among those who sail among the stars.

Prizes Fall.

The uniqueness of this event will be readily apparent when it is stated that there will be three parachutes attached and at a given time those parachutes will be detached and slowly descending the resistent atmosphere, slowly and majestically settling to earth. Into the hands of those parachutes means money to the person who finds it and makes use of the coupon which he will discover attached to the parachute. The aggregate value of the gifts which will be disposed of in this manner is $100.

One of the parachutes will be red, the second blue, and the third white. The winner or captor of the red parachute will find in it a coupon which will entitle him to a trip to Los Angeles. On the white flyer will be an order for a stylish summer suit on the S. A. Friedman Cloth & Suit Company of this city. The blue flyer will have an order for a bill of gentlemen's wear on the Hub Clothing store in this city.

THIRD DIVIDEND IS NOW AVAILABLE

Receiver Edoff of California Bank Wants to Distribute $100,000.

Superior Judge Harris this afternoon took up further consideration of the matter of the California Bank, of which James P. Edoff is receiver. Edoff asks the court's permission to declare a third dividend of 10 per cent on or about June 1. This third dividend will amount to $100,000.

Edoff also asks for a settlement of his third account, in which he showed that within the one hundred and one days the liabilities of the bank had been reduced $253,629.61.

Edoff's petition to the court for advice as to how he shall proceed in settling the claim of the California Bank against the Bank of Ventura also came up before the court this afternoon.

SUIT IS BROUGHT FOR $1529 DAMAGES

James Morrissey Jr. filed suit today against Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy for $1529 damages, which he claims is due him because the defendants had him arrested with malicious intent. Morrissey alleges that Mrs. Murphy had him incarcerated in the city prison on a misdemeanor charge on April 2 and that on May 2 the charge against him was dismissed. The plaintiff claims that it was shown that there was no cause for his arrest and that Mrs. Murphy acted with malicious intent.

It is needless to say that thousands of people in all parts of this city and the adjoining towns will be watching for this ship which will literally bring some energetic and vigilant individuals money from the skies. The scene tonight at the park will have all the features of a mid-summer revel in a great family of kindred spirits, and ardent of the park and inspired to the heights of joy and illumination the lawns romantic thoughts the youth of both sexes who will be attracted to the scene. Aside from the concessions referred to, there will be an operatic performance in the auditorium, when the work known as the "Fortune Teller" will be rendered. This was the most popular piece in the repertoire of Alice Nielsen, who for years has been among the most appreciated vocalists on the stage in the estimation of the people of this city.

TRIBUNE Day Stands Alone.

TRIBUNE Day stands alone as evidence of liberality on the part of an enterprising newspaper, as also an evidence of appreciation of the kindness of its friends, and there should be no failure on the part of any person who has been so fortunate as to secure a ticket to avail himself or herself of the courtesy.

BERKELEY'S FLEET DAY PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Early Morning Rain Did Not Dampen Ardor of Those Who Entertained Sailors.

MORGAN'S PARK IS NOT GIVEN PERMIT

Application for License Was Withdrawn

had never heard the voices of men and woman at night.
Leach said: "Then you wish this board to understand that the men and women who have testified to the objectionable features of the place have perjured themselves?"

Dolan: "I never saw or heard of these things spoken of."

Speaks of Ribald Yells.

Leach—Do you wish to testify that the voices of little children are more penetrating than the ribald yell of drunken loafers and prostitutes who frequent that place?

Dolan—I never heard these men and women.

Leach—If it is true, as testified here, that this is an assignation house, that young women are taken and remain there all night, and are debauched there, and that automobile parties of men and women go there and stay all night, would you consider it an objectionable place?

Dolan—I don't know of anything of these things.

Leach—In view of all the matters testified to, do you think this is a place that you would like to have continued?

Dolan—If it is conducted as at present,
yes.

Mrs. Katherine Barrett of Pomona avenue testified that her property adjoins Morgan's Park, being next to Mr. Dolan's home; she had lived there over a year and had never been disturbed by any unusual noises or scenes.

Leach—Mrs. Barrett, were you ever in Morgan's Park?

Says Question Is Insult.

Mrs. Barrett—I consider it an insult for you to ask such a question.

Leach—Why do you consider it an insult to be asked such a question?

Mrs. Barrett—Because the saloon at Morgan's Park is no place for a respectable woman to go.

Leach—I didn't ask you about the saloon. Did you ever go into the park?

Mrs. Barrett—"No."

Leach—I ask you again why you considered it an insult to be asked about entering the park?

Woman Angry.

Mrs. Barrett—"Well, you asked others if they went into the log cabin and I thought you might ask me some such question?"

Leach—"But I didn't."

Mrs. Barrett (angrily)—"You better not."

Leach (smiling)—"I won't. Now tell us why you come here to testify in favor of the place?"

Mrs. Barrett—"I heard it was going to be thrown open as a place for public picnics and the like and I supposed they would have to make it pay one way or another, so I preferred to see it continue under the present management."

Would Tell Truth.

William Jensen testified that he formerly lived near Morgan's Park and he considered the place an orderly resort.
He was glad when the present management got the place, as they greatly improved conditions. He now lives on the boulevard some distance away.

Leach—"How did you happen to come here to help Morgan's Park?"

Jensen—"I thought I would like to come and tell the truth."

Leach—"When did that beautiful sentiment enter your mind?"

Jensen—"Well, I told my mother that I thought I would tell the truth about the place."

Leach—"Is that the only answer to
my question?"

Jensen—"Yes."

Ministers Complained.

Hans Hansen, a shoemaker, testified that he lives 500 feet from Morgan's Park and is able to see what is going on. He considered the place conducted in a proper manner. He had heard complaints about the place, but he didn't believe them. Those complaints were by people who lived miles away, but none by those who lived near. The complaints were generally by ministers and temperance people. He signed the petition and thought the place ought to be allowed to run. He volunteered to sign the petition.

Mortgage in Question.

M. E. Lorenson, a blacksmith and a signer of the petition lives 150 feet from the side gate of Morgan's Park.
He had never seen or heard anything objectionable about the place, had never heard any objectionable noises day or night.

Leach—Hogarty, the saloon man out there holds a $4000 mortgage on your place, doesn't he?

Lorenson—No; that I know of. I didn't get the money from him. The mortgage is only $2500 and while I don't know for certain I suppose he holds the mortgage.

Marcuse—Were you threatened with foreclosure if you did not testify for Morgan's Park?

Lorenson—No.

Passage at Arms.

W. M. Galloway testified that he lives seventy-five or eighty feet from the park and can see everything that is going on. He said he had never seen the slightest objectionable thing about the place, had never heard it was an assignation house, nor had he heard that young women were taken there and debauched. He thought that the Morgan & Meyer place is as respectable as any saloon in Alameda county.

Leach—How familiar are you with the saloons of Alameda county?

Galloway—About as familiar as you are.

Leach—Then you are acquainted with my knowledge of saloons?

Galloway—I know a thing or two about the town.

Leach—How often do you frequent
Morgan's Park?

Galloway—I go there once in a while —often as I please, and drink when
and what I please.

Drinks Whisky.

Leach—What do you generally drink
at Morgan's Park?

Galloway—"Whisky."

Leach—"Did you ever drink whisky
in the log cabin?"

Galloway—"Frequently."

Leach—"When?"

Galloway—"At all times of the day and night."

Leach—"After midnight?"

Objection was made to this question by Attorney Marcuse, as the place was not supposed to sell liquor after 12 o'clock at night.

Galloway—"Well, I didn't look at the time."

Leach—"What were you doing in the log cabin at night?"

Galloway—"Listening to the music and singing."

Glasses on Tray.

T. M. Hansen who owns some flats opposite Morgan's Park said that Mr.

Cox, the only person he had ever heard complain of the place.

Marcuse—"Could a small tray containing whisky glasses be seen from the middle of the road at 3 o'clock in the morning?"

Haggerty—"If there was light enough it could be seen."

Leach—"That's a joke."

Marcuse—"Is there an electric light between the barroom and the log cabin?"

Haggerty—"Yes."

Marcuse—"Could a man standing in the road see whether glasses on a tray taken into the log cabin contained whisky?"

Haggerty—"I couldn't."

Replying to Leach the witness said that he keeps a liquor store near the place and that Mr. Flannagan is his partner. Haggerty declared that he favored the granting of a license to Morgan and Meyer.

Application Withdrawn.

This closed the testimony and Attorney Marcuse said that as the board had hitherto intimated that the license for this place would be denied, he had asked permission to introduce testimony to show that the place was not as bad as painting. He thought this vindication had been provided by the testimony today, but in view of the circumstances he would ask permission to withdraw the application for license and that a verdict against the applicants be not returned at this time.

Attorney Leach objected, saying that it would be an insult to the people of the community who had made objection.
More than that, the board would be making more trouble for themselves, as this application for a license would be presented again, and the board would have to hear all the testimony again.

Supervisor Kelly moved that Morgan & Meyer be permitted to withdraw their application.

District Attorney Brown in reply to Supervisor Bridge said that the legal effect would be the same whether the application be withdrawn or the license be denied, the owners of the place could make a new application whenever they desired to do so.

The request was granted for withdrawal of the application for a license
by the following vote:

Yes—Supervisors Kelly, Bridge and Homer.

No—Supervisors Rowe and Mitchell.

Women Rejoiced.

The room was thronged with women, almost all of them protesting against the saloon, and when the withdrawal of Morgan & Meyer's application for a license was recorded they applauded the decision and shook hands with one another in token of their rejoicing.

Waste of Natural Resources.

The conference of the governors of the States and Territories now in progress at the White House, which has assumed a national character through the presence in it of experts skilled in the development of the natural resources of the country and other distinguished men as delegates in response to the President's special invitation, is riveting the attention of not only this country but the civilized world at large to the enormous waste that has occurred and is still in progress in the utilization of these resources and the urgent necessity that exists for the immediate action of adopting means for their economical conservation.

In his address at the conference, James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, dwelt upon the raid which is being made on the great forests of the Northwest, whose exhaustion is definitely determinable and actually in sight. Indeed, Mr. Hill predicts that within the next ten years some of the varieties of merchantable timber in these forests will have been entirely destroyed by the lumberman if the present methods of harvesting is continued unrestrained. It has, of course, been the fixed policy of the national government to arrest the denudation of the forested public lands by the creation of national reserves, and no President has been more active than Roosevelt in carrying out this policy since it was adopted. And in his address at the opening of the conference he advocated the adoption of the principle instituted by the people of Maine in the interest of forest conservation and sustained by the Supreme Court of that State to the effect that "the property rights of the individual are subordinate to the rights of the community and especially that the waste of wild timber land derived originally from the State, involving as it would the impoverishment of the State and its people and thereby defeating one great purpose of government may properly be prevented by State restrictions."

State Geologist White of West Virginia dwelt on the enormous waste of fuel through the non-utilization of natural gas escaping in the process of mining for mineral oil, in which he made the following startling statement: "There can be no doubt that for every barrel of oil taken from the earth there have been wasted more than ten times its equivalent in either heating power, or weight even, of this, the best of all fuels, and also that much more than half of this frightful waste could have been avoided by proper care in oil production and slight additional expenditures."

Andrew Carnegie pointed out that through the improvident methods of coal mining since the industry started, eighty-eight years ago, the output has aggregated over 7,500,000,000 tons, while the waste to obtain it has been in the neighborhood of 9,000,000,000 tons, all of which is now irrecoverable.

These are only a few examples of the manner in which our natural resources are being wasted, but they are of such a character that they will stagger every thoughtful citizen and convince him that no time should be lost in stopping the waste through the agency of effective legislation to save the nation from entering on a career of irredeemable decadence.

Despite the showery weather in the morning, which threatened for a time to put a damper on Berkeley's fleet day festivities, for which the college town had made elaborate preparations for many weeks past, the event passed off with an enthusiasm which corresponded with the courage of the committee when it decided to carry out the program rain or shine. The town was decorated in a unique manner, with natural flowers as the distinguishing feature, and Berkeley's gardens, which are the admiration of all who see them, contributed wagonloads for the purpose. The only change made in the program prepared for the day was to spread the luncheon for the bluejackets under cover in Harmon gymnasium instead of on the damp ground of the campus.

The death of Miss Mary Snell is a genuine loss to the cause of education in California. She was one of the ablest as well as one of the oldest teachers in the State. As the founder of Snell Seminary, first established at Benicia and afterward removed to the site on which the Orpheum in this city stands, she had a warm place in the affection and respect of the people of Oakland and, in fact, throughout the State. After disposing of the Twelfth-street property she spent some years abroad for the benefit of her health and on her return reopened the seminary in Berkeley in conjunction with her sister, Mrs. Edna Snell-Poulson, where she died after a protracted illness. The graduates of Snell Seminary are scattered all over the country and they will learn the death of its amiable, devoted and accomplished founder with profound regret.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst's Services Recognized.

The presentation of a loving cup to Mrs. Phoebe Hearst by her associates on the Board of Regents of the State University on Wednesday was one of the most graceful tributes that could be paid to a gentle, generous and accomplished public-spirited woman who has devoted her talents and contributed of her wealth unselfishly to the service of higher education in California for a great many years. Through her intelligent and faithful effort she has won the appreciation, confidence, admiration and affection of her associates on the Board of University Regents and the goodwill of the people of the State at large.

Mrs. Hearst has been instrumental in making the name of the University of California famous the world over as one of the most notable and distinctive of the greater educational institutions in America. Her benefactions have exceeded all others toward it, and through them she has erected an imperishable monument to her deceased husband and herself. It was a fitting beginning of the development of the Hearst architectural plans of the University buildings of the future, the cost of which was defrayed by her, that the first of the group—the mining building—provided therein, should be erected at her expense as a memorial to her husband, who had during his lifetime served the State and the Nation in their legislative halls. The loving cup presented to her, with its appropriate inscription, is, however, merely a small token of the esteem in which she is held by her fellow Regents. The broader view of her personal worth and of her works is the affectionate remembrance in which she will be held by the friends of education everywhere as long as the University of California endures.

DOES NOT SEEM TO MISS LOSS OF PART OF BRAIN

NEW YORK, May 15.—With four ounces of his brain removed, Jacob Ritz, twenty-two years old, of Brooklyn, is preparing to leave St. Mary's hospital, apparently in good health and in possession of all his faculties. The operation was performed by the surgeons of the hospital, and is regarded as being entirely satisfactory.

Ritz shot himself in the head with a revolver on April 3 the bullet entering the side of his head. A tumor formed between the brain and the wall of the skull and pressed upon the frontal lobes. In removing this it was found necessary to take out about four ounces of brain matter. Because of the course the bullet had taken it was thought that Ritz's senses of sight and taste had been impaired. Tests, however, showed that these had not been affected.

BADLY BURNED WHILE REPAIRING OIL BURNERS

Robert Stewart, Employed in Claus Spreckels Building, Has Accident.

(Special to The Tribune)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Robert Stewart, living at 1709 Curly street, Berkeley, employed as an engineer in the Claus Spreckels building, was severely burned about the head and face in the boiler-room this morning. Stewart was having difficulty with the oil burners, and in the endeavor to light the flare-back, prematurely ignited a portion of the oil which heaped up and burned him before he could get out of the way.

He was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, where Dr. Zumwalt dressed his injuries, after which he left for his home.

In Paris there is a rat pound. It is a deep walled pit, in which some thousands of rats are kept. A dead horse is thrown into the pit at night and rats strip the carcass of its flesh. Once a month there is a general slaying of rats by gas. The rats are sleek and plump, and their hides are in excellent condition. Their skins are removed and treated and eventually are made into "kid" gloves.

OUR BABY.

There's a dear little form that we cherish,
There's a sweet little smile that we love
There are two eyes we gaze at with rapture,
Just as blue as the bright skies above
There's a plump, rounded cheek soft and rosy
There's a beautiful white baby brow
That Dull Care looks askance at with longing
But he cannot touch Baby now!

There's a hand that caresses your forehead—
A soft hand so tiny and white,
As deep into shadows of dreamland,
We softly sing Baby at night.

There's a change from the spring to the summer
Then brown autumn doth sweep over all—
There's a change from brown Autumn to winter
That holds Nature fast in his thrall

And bright babyhood passes before us
Like some beautiful dream of gay spring
And before half our heart's love is given,
With old Time doth bright Childhood take wing.

LARCHMONT LUCK.
Larchmont luck has been a by-word for years among the Sound yachtsmen. If they were discouraged after other club races because of adverse conditions, they would say as a matter of course "Oh, well, never mind, we'll have a good breeze at the Larchmont race" and strange to say they were seldom disappointed in their cheerful prediction. In the old days when the late Gus Monroe was the man behind the gun in the club they used to start from thirty to forty yachts in the annual regatta. Gus used to remark "You'll see 100 boats cross the starting line in a few years. He was a prophet for in one of the recent races 311 yachts actually crossed the starting line off the breakwater. His prediction had been more than fulfilled for it was the record number of starters in a race on Long Island sound—Fox and Country.

IN JAIL A YEAR, HE IS FORGOTTEN

No Record of His Name, Crime, Commitment, or Trial Can Be Found

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 15.—It would seem incredible that in this age a man could be imprisoned for more than a year in the jail of this county, in this town, not knowing himself the reason or cause of his imprisonment, his identity unknown to the county officials, and no entry reibly affecting him or his alleged offense to be found anywhere in the public records, yet it is a fact that this is so.

The man, a foreigner, was recently released from jail because no ground could be found for his further detention, nor indeed for his detention at any time. He might still be in prison had there not been a change in sheriffs.

The new sheriff is Peter A. Johns. During one of his late official examinations of the jail inmates his attention was called for some reason to this man.

"What is your name?" inquired the Sheriff.

"Elex Lenchack."

"Where are you in prison for?"

"I don't know."

"How long have you been here?" "More than a year."

The Sheriff examined the jail register covering a year and longer, but could not find the name of Lenchack. He did the same with the commitments, but with equal success. Then he questioned the prisoner more closely.

Lenchack could not handle the English language very well, but he managed to explain that all he knew about it was that he had been walking across a field at one of the coking plants not far from this town when two men accosted him, took him before a magistrate and then brought him to jail.

It is the Sheriff's theory that Lenchack had been committed to jail under one name; that he had got on the jail register under another name, and on the trial docket of the court under still another name, and that when the name on the trial docket was called during sessions of court there was no prisoner to answer to it.

The poor fellow was so glad to get out that his expressions of gratitude so far as he was able to make this sentiment clear, were most pathetic. A foreigner, knowing little or nothing of the habits and customs of this country, not understanding the language, homeless, friendless, knowing no one to apply to, he had got into jail for a trivial offense. There, forgotten, unable to confide in any one even if he had wished, ignorant of how to take steps to get free, he had put in more than a year of his life in a place to which he should not, perhaps, have been sent.

CHILDHOOD PLAYMATES And to Wed After Being Separated Many Years

NEW YORK, May 15.—A marriage which will unite two childhood playmates swept far apart by the years and fate, only to return at last to the old trust and faith, will shortly be solemnized in this city in the presence of the children and a few near friends of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Leah Mitchell, of 17 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street. Years ago, when Mrs. Mitchell, then Margaret Brecken, was a school girl in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Sidney David Fitzgerald, a boy, somewhat her senior, was her chum and champion. But the boy grew up to leave his birthplace and the girl attained womanhood to marry.

Four children were born to Mrs. Mitchell before, twenty years ago, she was widowed. Sidney Fitzgerald had also married, but he had settled in the West, and it was only on his visits to his father, the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, rector of St. Paul's, in Charlottetown, that he saw the friends of his youth.

Gradually Mrs. Mitchell's children drifted away from home. One son went to Vancouver, a daughter became a nurse in the Salem Hospital and Miss Laura Mitchell became a painter of miniatures and came to New York to study at the Art Students' League. Her work even as an amateur received immediate recognition. The miniature of her grandmother, a daughter of Commander Mayne, of the British navy, was one of two, non-professional, accepted for an exhibition at Knoedler's Galleries. She later won first prize at an exhibition at the Catherine Lorillard Club.

It was to be with Laura that Mrs. Mitchell a year ago came to New York to make her home. Here Sidney Fitzgerald, now seven years a widower, found her again. His home is in La Crosse, Kan.

JERSEY COWS CLIMB STAIRS; RAISE RUMPUS IN TENEMENT HOUSE

NEW YORK, May 15.—Two gay young Jersey cows with a taste for stair climbing and a deep-rooted aversion for the slaughter house raised all kinds of a rumpus among the women in a big double tenement in Hoboken this morning.

A farmer from out Secaucus way was driving his herd of ten cows along Newark street when the trouble began. At the head of the procession was a young thing, hardly more than a heifer, trotting alongside of a matronly cow of several summers and a two-year-old calf. Without any warning, the fawn-colored youngster let out one "meo," took a hop, skip and jump, and was galloping off down the street and with the matron at her heels. The wide doors of the tenement attracted them, and they clattered right on upstairs.

It was a work of seconds for the firemen of Company 2, directly across the street, to roll to a still alarm. Their red shirts only made matters worse. The refractory animals presently quieted down, and on the arrival of the police were removed from the place.

USES TOE OF HER SLIPPER FOR A JEWEL CASKET

HARTFORD, Conn., May 15.—When Miss Marion G. Tallman, daughter of James H. Tallman and a society favorite, placed $800 worth of jewels in the toe of her Cinderella slipper after her last reception, she did not expect to send the slipper to the cobbler's.

When she tried to put the slipper on she thought it had shrunk, so she telephoned to the cobbler, who sent a boy on a bicycle to fetch the slipper down for repairs.

When it came back it was without the jewelry, some of which had been in the family for years. The police have been unable to find it and believe the rings and brooches dropped out when the boy was riding his wheel back to the shoe shop. A reward of $200 is offered for the return of the missing jewels.

Second District Municipal Court in disposing proceedings, Mrs. Saqui, who conducted her own case, told the court she had occupied the premises for eleven years, paying $20 a month at first and accepting the advances up to the present rental of $60. She declared she had a verbal lease with Becker.

"In the eleven years that I have been a tenant only $24 has been spent in repairs on the store," Mrs. Saqui said.

Justice Tierney dismissed the case.

LOVE AT SIGHT IN PATROL WAGON IS TO LEAD TO MARRIAGE AFTER JAIL TERMS

CHICAGO, May 15.—A romance which began in a patrol wagon and which may mean the regeneration of two prisoners became public in Judge Kerstein's court. Gertrude Mountain pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny and accepted a sentence of six months in the house of correction after declaring her intention of marrying Francis May.

"Is that true that you intend to get married?" asked Assistant State's Attorney B. J. Short.

"Yes. As soon as we both get out," answered the girl, who is 18 years old. She had been arrested for stealing jewelry and $24 from Ruben Metz, 1023 Fifty-third street, her employer.

May, who himself is awaiting trial for burglary, had kept the girl supplied with money for little jail luxuries, and also had engaged Attorney Ernest C. Reniff to defend her.

Their first meeting occurred four weeks ago in the patrol wagon which conveyed prisoners to the jail from the Harrison street police station.

"She was all doubled up in a corner, crying," May said. "It was all new to her and I felt sorry for her. I wasn't feeling any too cheerful myself, but I said to her, 'Don't cry, kid,' and got her to give me her name just as the wagon pulled up at the jail and they jerked me out. She is a awful young and doesn't know much."

Mrs. Mary Niemeyer, matron of the jail, confirmed May's statement.

May is accused of stealing from a Chicago and Northwestern railroad freight car.

NEGRO COACHMAN HIS WIFE'S AFFINITY SAYS MILLIONAIRE IN HIS SUIT FOR A DIVORCE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 15.—Becomingly garbed in a costume of light brown, a thick veil hiding her face, pretty Mrs. Emanuel Augustine Lord sat in the Fairfield County Superior Courtroom here today and listened to her husband, Henry J. Lord, a millionaire, who is suing her for divorce, accuse her of having been too friendly with her negro coachman, Harry Cameron. Lord asks for the custody of their four-year-old daughter, Lucy Johnson Lord.

The two were married on April 2, 1902, and after a brief residence here, went to live on a fine country estate which Lord bought in Trumbull. There he established one of the most famous stables of blooded horses in this part of the country. It was to care for these horses that Cameron, the negro, first came here. Mrs. Lord comes of a well-known southern family famous for its beautiful women.

None of the family traits of beauty was lost in her, and as she was both a clever whip and daring horsewoman her society was eagerly sought by the smart set here. She entered her horses at the fairs of the exclusive Greenfield Hill Country Club and rode and drove there accompanied by Cameron, winning many ribbons, until the gossiping her and the negro coachman caused the club officials to refuse to enter her horses.

Her husband charges her with misconduct with Cameron between March 1 and July 1, 1907. On the stand here today he said that Cameron had occupied a room in the attic of the house, and that he had caught his wife leaving this room on several occasions. He testified that his wife came to him at one time and asked that Cameron be allowed to sleep on a couch in her room. It was too hot for him in the attic. When Lord refused to permit this Mrs. Lord displayed considerable temper and threatened him with a knife, her husband testified.

During the summer of 1907 Lord hired a cottage near the Pequot Hotel in New London, where Mrs. Lord spent the season. The negro coachman was in attendance on her there. During his wife's absence Lord said he had occasion to open a dresser in her room and in a lower drawer he found a pair of Cameron's shoes and other articles of his wearing apparel, and these letters, which he claims, are in his wife's handwriting and were written to Cameron by her.

Missives to "Precious Harry."

"June 9, 1907—My precious darling Harry: Please for a little while, darling, don't leave me and go away. You know, precious, you told me once that you would not leave me. You know you are the only one I truly love. I would give anything in this world for you. I know, dear, you will stay after me on occasion to open a dresser in my room. I will be all alone if you go. I would never have kept up so long as you, for you, please, I ask again, don't leave for my sake. Your very own and one who loves you better than herself."

"April 6, 1907—My precious Harry: Just a few lines from a little girl who loves you more dearly than you know. If I hurt your feelings I am very sorry. I know I was very hasty this morning, but it only lasted for a minute. From the bottom of my heart I am very sorry."

By I said what I did. Won't you forgive me once more, darling? You know you have been as good as gold and as true as steel. I would very much like to see you today, if only for a little while."

Lord testified that when he told his wife the coachman must be discharged she threatened to leave if Cameron went. He said that later Cameron threatened him with assault.

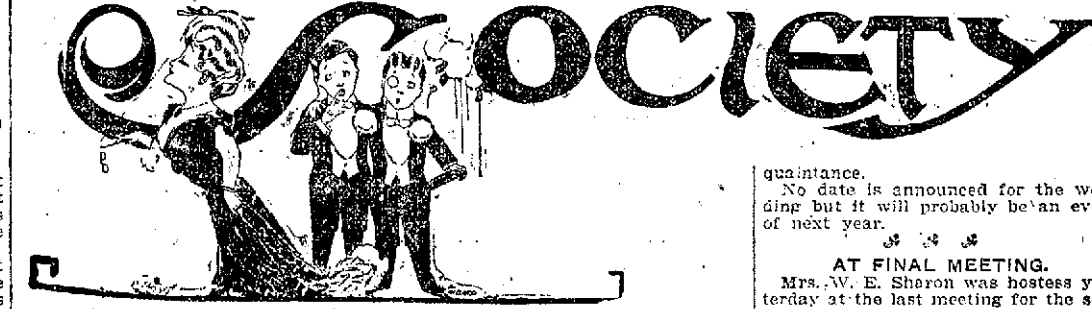

Last October Lord took his child and left the house and at once began divorce proceedings. Mrs. Lord and Cameron remained on the place for awhile, but when the story became known public sentiment became so strong that they both left.

Mrs. Lord, when the divorce suit was brought last November, said: "Altogether I shall be happier and better off without my husband. I shall fight him to the bitter end to clear my name of the disgusting charges he has made, and to obtain the custody of our little girl."

"I'D HATE TO MEET YOU WHEN YOU'RE HEALTHY" BURGLAR TELLS WOMAN

SHE BEATS HIM UNTIL POLICE ARRIVE.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Richard Pike was locked up in the Butler street police station in Brooklyn last night, charged with attempted burglary, after Policeman Thomas Griffin had rescued him from the clutches of Mrs. Mollie Brown and her sister Dorothy, who used him for a punching bag when they caught him in their flat. He is about 5 feet 10 and weighs 150 pounds.

Mrs. Brown is a good-looking widow twenty-three years of age and athletic. She lives with her parents at No. 145 Court street. Her father, Max Augustich, keeps a cigar store on the ground floor, while the family has a flat on the second floor above. Mrs. Brown was tending store, the other day in the absence of the old folks, and when her sister Dorothy and cousin sin, Rose Molmut, returned from the theater about 6 o'clock, she left them in charge and went upstairs to dress for a dance.

Mrs. Brown entered the flat, and when she reached her mother's bed room she saw a man bending over one of the bureau drawers. When she recovered from the first shock she grabbed him by the coat.

"What are you doing there?" she shouted. "I'm looking for a furnished room," said the man straightening up and wiggling through his coat.

"It looks as though you found it all right," said the plucky woman, keeping right after the burglar when he tried to back away.

He made a dash for the door, but Mrs. Brown threw herself on him and bore him to the ground. They rolled out into the hallway with the woman rolling at the top of her voice.

She got the burglar with his head hanging over the first step and then she sat on him and punched him till she was weary.

"Go get a cop, Rose!" shouted Mrs. Brown when Dorothy and her cousin quaintance. No date is announced for the wedding but it will probably be an event of next year.

Girl to Raise Humming Birds on Farm for Household Pets

Continued that hummingbirds will make good household pets, Miss Gwendolyn Brooks of 335 Central Park West, is going to raise them in Central Islip, L. I. Miss Brooks has bought a farm there and has obtained plans for a house from W. Albert Swaney of 50 West Thirty-third street.

She proposes to sell the tiny birds and said recently she already has a lot of commissions for them. In spite of their small size they are not difficult to keep in good health, she declared, and they are most interesting to study. She has experimented in raising them in the South and West.

At Central Islip Miss Brooks will make a specialty of the species known as the "ruby-throated" birds. Their real home is in South America, but they migrate to this climate in the hot weather, nest here and return to the tropics in August before cold weather can nip their frail bodies. Just how they manage to survive the hardships of their long journey here and back to the tropics has long puzzled naturalists.

Miss Brooks says that if the birds have considerable space to fly about in and are well fed with honey and insects they are not hard to raise.

came running up from the store. Rose obeyed orders and Dorothy went to her sister's aid and took up the good work where she had left off. The burglar got on his feet by a superhuman effort, but the two women shoved him through a closet door and saved him against the door. He was a sorry looking sight when Griffin got him. "I wish I had my health," said Mrs. Brown, as the man was led away. "I'd hate to meet you when you're healthy," said the burglar. At the station house Pike said his home was in Rochester. He insisted that he had been looking for a furnished room, but a broken lock on the Augustich apartment didn't help his story any. He didn't get anything for his trouble, but he overlooked $200 in cash in the top drawer of the bureau.

Divorce Yourself from lard cooked food

The purity of Cottolene is apparent when you compare its source—the cotton fields of the Sunny South, with the source of lard—the pig-sty. Lard is an animal product of doubtful cleanliness and wholesomeness; Cottolene a vegetable product of absolute cleanliness and purity.

The economy of using Cottolene is easy to figure when you know that one-third less is required than of either lard or cooking butter.

If purity and economy count for anything in your eyes, Cottolene should be the frying and shortening medium used in your kitchen. It is recommended by the most noted cooks and pure food advocates of this country—people who have scientifically analyzed it and carefully tested it for all cooking purposes where lard or butter has been previously used.

Buy a pail of Cottolene today and give it a personal test.

READING MATTER FROM OAKLAND IS REQUESTED

American Consul at Jamaica Is Starting Reading Room.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from F. Van Dyne, American consul at Kingston, Jamaica, requesting that manufacturers and exporters send catalogues and that publishers of newspapers, trade journals and magazines mail copies of their publications to the consulate at Kingston for the purpose of filing.

In the letter Consul Van Dyne states that the reading room which he has established is recognized as a well equipped American bureau of information and is largely used by local merchants and importers. He asks co-operation to the end that publicity may be given to his requests that he may receive further catalogues, and expresses himself as confident that a compliance with his requests will mean the establishment of a large amount of business between Kingston and Oakland.

He considers the present moment particularly opportune for American exporters to extend their trade to Jamaica by reason of the rebuilding of the city of Kingston and the refurbishing of stores and houses by reason of the earthquake and fire in Kingston in January, 1907.

carnival. The city was beautifully decorated and a floral parade preceded the crowning of the carnival queen, which was the principal feature of the celebration.

Baseball Game.
The final baseball championship game was played this afternoon on the Presidio grounds in this city, and this evening the amateur boxing tournament will be continued. Diners will be given to the fleet officers by the military order of the Loyola Legion and the veterans of the Spanish-American war.

Sperry's Record.
Rear-Admiral Sperry, who was born in Brooklyn, graduated from Annapolis in 1886. He became an ensign in 1888 and received his master's papers in 1889. He became a Lieutenant-commander in 1893, and in May 1906, he was raised to the rank of rear-admiral. During the run around the Horn he commanded the fourth division of the second squadron of the Atlantic fleet, his flagship being the Alabama.

Under Admiral Sperry the Atlantic fleet will suffer minor alterations in its run to Puget Sound next week. It is announced that the Louisiana will become the flagship of the second division of the fleet squadron, taking the place of the Georgia. It is also reported that when the Atlantic fleet sails for the Orient in July the Alabama and Maine will return to the Eastern Coast, their places being taken in the column by the battleships Wisconsin and Nebraska.

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—The torpedo fleet is scheduled to arrive in Sacramento at 8 p. m. today. An opportunity will be given to the boats several miles down the river and escort them to this city. The local militia companies, accompanied by a brass band and the reception committee, headed by Mayor White, will meet the fleet upon its arrival. There will be a parade through the principal streets at 8 p. m., and at 9 o'clock the officers will be given a reception at the Sutter Club.

OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT WARSHIPS

School Children to Be Allowed an Hour on Vessels
in Bay.

The school children of Alameda county who did not have an opportunity to visit the battleships of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets last Wednesday will have the pleasure of visiting them tomorrow on launches and steamers provided by Hunt, Hatch & Company.

The first launch will leave Webster street wharf at 9 o'clock. They will run as often as possible. No scheduled time is given, but they will convey passengers all day to and from the fleets.

The round trip tickets for children will be 25 cents and adults 50 cents. They may be purchased at the wharf. Superintendent of Schools McClymonds stated this morning that all the pupils who were unsuccessful in getting aboard the ships before would have no difficulty tomorrow as numerous launches will convey all safely to the various battleships. An hour has been allotted to each student to pass on the warships.

CARO ROMA SIGNS FOR MUSICAL WORK

Caro Roma, the California prima donna, known in the musical world as "the American Chaminade," has signed a contract, covering a number of years, to write and compose exclusively for M. Witmark & Sons.

As three other firms were also bidding for the Caro lyrics and melodies the Witmarks are to be congratulated upon securing the services of so clever a woman writer, who has not only expressed her perfect satisfaction with the terms of her contract, but also her delight and pleasure in writing for a firm whose members are all such old professional friends of hers.

Caro Roma is the daughter of V. S. Northey of East Oakland. She was educated in the Oakland schools. At one time she was the prima donna at the Regal in San Francisco.

FAINT-HEARTED BURGLAR IS CAUGHT BY LION-HEARTED MERCHANT

FEARS PARTNER HAS MET WITH FOUL PLAY

Man Disappears With $759 on His Person

John Wittine of Richmond has disappeared and it is feared by his business partner, John Samide, that the missing man has met with foul play, that he was robbed and then murdered and his body disposed of. Wittine left Richmond for this city last Wednesday morning having for his possession about $100 in cash. When he arrived here he collected a bill for $359, and was given a check for the amount. This check has been cashed and Wittine has dropped out of sight.

HE PASSED IN COUNCIL AFTER HEATED ARGUMENT

The consideration of sewer matters before the street committee of the City Council last night stirred up a tempest which nearly led to showers of blows, but for the calming influence of the councilmen Frank J. Woodward and Frank Davis were the belligerents. This he was passed by the two men and many insinuations were spoken.

Davis claimed that Woodward had allowed John Muldoon a large property owner just outside of the northern border line of the city to connect sewers from his property to a sewer which was built in Broadway and which Woodward obtained a right to connect to Oakland's sewers for a consideration of $500. It was understood when Woodward obtained this permission that he was not to allow any other sewers to be connected. Now Davis says that Woodward has allowed Muldoon to connect sewers from his property with this sewer and that therefore Woodward's contract with the city has been abrogated.

That is a damned lie. That man is telling an absolute untruth, said Woodward in answer to Davis.

"I do not know this man and I know he has no interest in this matter whatever. I cannot see why he came up here tonight and tried to inject himself into this matter. He has been uttering for many untruths."

Your name is none too good," retorted Davis, "but we will take those matters up later. We are talking sewers at the present time."

Woodward denied that he had allowed Muldoon the use of his sewer. He said that he and Muldoon had built the sewer in Broadway outside the city each paying half. He stated that he had obtained permission from Oakland to connect this sewer to Oakland's sewers for the use of his property but that Muldoon had thus far failed to get permission to use Oakland's sewer. Woodward asserted that he had told Muldoon that he must get permission from Oakland to use the Muldoon sewer and that he did not know that Muldoon was using the sewer, as Davis claimed.

Matters were getting to the boiling point when Chairman Harry Burns called a halt and the matter was continued for two weeks.

TENDERED RECEPTION ON GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

MR. AND MRS. W. H. SNOW, WHO CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ON MAY 2.

BAPTISTS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Annual Conference Will Conclude Its Session This Evening With Special Service.

The Baptist conference which closes tonight held an important business meeting this morning at which the officers who will serve for the next two years, were elected and many important resolutions passed.

The New Officers.

The officials elected were Rev. C. A. Woodward of Portland, president; Rev. W. L. Tucker of Los Angeles, secretary and treasurer; vice-presidents, C. A. McNitt of Salt Lake, Rev. G. F. Holt of Los Angeles, Professor O. M. Johnson of Palo Alto, E. M. Runyon of Portland and Smith Ely of Montana.

The conference in a body, endorsed the motion that the church take a more decided stand upon the question of union and capital. The delegation urged that the churches use every effort toward the banishment of the saloon and the race track. The conference pledged itself to lend support to no one in public office who did not take the stand against gambling and the saloons.

Educational Institutions.

The educational institutions of the denomination in the district were endorsed but it was decided to found no new ones until those already in existence were sufficiently endowed. The California college in East Oakland and the college at Redlands are Baptists institutions.

The next conference will be held two years hence in Los Angeles.

DYNAMITE FOUND IN NAVY YARD

Fifty-seven Sticks, Some of Them Weighing 2 Pounds, Supposed Property of Car Strikers in Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 15.—Fifty-seven sticks of dynamite each of them one-half to two pounds in weight were found last night at a point about five hundred yards from what is known as Big Bayou Trastie west of the city and the entire quantity is now in the possession of the officers of the navy yard.

The dynamite was found by marines from the navy yard. It is believed that the persons who had been dynamiting street cars had secreted the supply.

To Assist Clear Up Death Mystery

Clarence Reed, who told a mysterious tale of the disappearance of the body of Emastus Dolores Hildebrand, to whom he said he was engaged, appeared at police headquarters Thursday and told the case before Captain of Detectives Peterson. Although there is nothing in the record in Alameda county to show that the young woman is dead, Reed insists that she shot herself while on a ranch in Contra Costa county while he was forced into a marriage with a man named Raymond and that she died later in Oakland from her wounds. All efforts to find to prove his story have so far proved unavailing and he has now decided to ask the police for assistance in clearing up the mysterious affair.

HE SUBDUED BURGLAR WITH A BROOMSTICK

Grocer's Fierce Fight With a Night Thief

(Special to The Tribune) May 15.—SAN FRANCISCO May 15.—Awakened from sleep by the sound of a burglar breaking into his store, Joseph O'Looney, a grocer of 2344 Mission street, stealthily crept from his room in the rear determined to capture the intruder at any cost.

He could see the man kneeling beside the safe and heard the jingle of the small drilling tools as he unwrapped his burglar's kit. Although he had no weapon other than a piece of broom handle O'Looney approached his man and getting behind him dealt him a blow on the head. The burglar who was a powerful fellow was scarcely stunned however and turned on his assailant.

The two struggled for some moments before the grocer could get his weapon again into play. At length he succeeded in conquering his man and after tying his hands with cord, he marched him to the Mission station, seven blocks away, where he was booked for burglary. And gave the name of George Jones, a shoemaker, and his age as twenty-seven years. He was later removed to the central Emergency hospital where his wounds were attended to.

CONVICT AUTOIST FOR KILLING CHILD

Capitalist Found Guilty of Murder for Running Down Girl With Machine.

SEATTLE, May 15.—Guy C. Stratton, a wealthy lumberman, was found guilty of the murder in the second degree yesterday in the Superior Court in running down and killing five-year-old Hendretta Margaret Johnson, daughter of a Ballard laborer, while returning from Sunday having been crushed out by an automobile owned by the defendant and in which he and a friend were riding.

Stratton drove the machine. This is the first trial by jury under the provisions of the law governing accidents by automobiles, passed by the last Legislature. The penalty is from one to twenty years in the penitentiary with a fine of $5000.

Prosecuting Attorney Vanderver urged the enforcement of the law, which he declared was enacted for humanity and should not be regarded as "meaningless wordless bit of literature." Numerous wagers were made in court, autoists generally betting that Stratton would be acquitted.

We have invariably insisted upon offering the very best values and in many instances, have made sacrifices, in order so sustain our reputation as the greatest value givers. Our prices will invariably be found much the lowest; our store service as perfect as we can possibly make it and back of all stands our liberal guarantee, "your money back if you want it," making trading here absolutely safe and satisfactory to our customers.

Boys' Long Pants Suits

Black Thibets, $15 Values $7.85

Splendid black Thibets, closely woven, lustrous, crow-black materials made into stylish garments, thoroughly tailored, for boys from 13 to 20 years of age. Positively $15 values. On special sale tomorrow at all of our three stores, $7.85.

Ladies' Tailored Suits like picture Worth $30-$35 $16.75

These suits were made for us by one of the leading manufacturers, and the quality of materials used in their making is the same as that in suits that sell for two and three times the above price. They are remarkable suits for the money, and we know that you cannot find styles that can be compared with these for anywhere near this price. The graceful cut may be seen from the illustration, but the quality of the fabrics used, the tailoring and the finish can only be appreciated upon inspection, for they are high-class garments through and through. The materials are serge, shadow stripe Panamas and new two-tone stripes. The colors include the fashionable Copenhagen blue, navy, brown, etc.

$8.50 Silk Underskirts $4.75

By constant perseverance we were able to secure another lot of those splendid $8.50 silk underskirts—the Regatta silk that took the first prize at the Chicago and St. Louis Expositions—and offer them to you at the remarkable low price of $4.75. These splendid skirts come in all colors of the rainbow and black. They are beautifully finished with an all-silk dust ruffle and are absolutely guaranteed by the maker. We only secured a limited quantity—about enough for one day's brisk selling—so place them on sale Saturday for $4.75.

Men's Suits

Almost every New York express that reaches San Francisco brings in a new shipment of men's clothes direct from our New York workshop. We are right on Fifth Avenue and Fourteenth Street, and just as soon as a new style appears in New York it is taken up by our designers, reproduced, and before many days pass you will find those snappy garments right on our counters here in Oakland. Sold direct to you from our work-rooms, enabling you to get the very latest and best styles in men's clothing at a great deal lower than the usual price.

Blue Serge Suits $9.50

Another shipment of those splendid "True Blue" serges enables us to renew this remarkable offer of $15 suits for $9.50. The great response to this sale left us entirely barren of these suits, and some argument was made as to whether we should continue the sale or not, but our desire to satisfy the demands overruled all other arguments. So tomorrow we place the new shipment on sale, and you may again choose from either single or double breasted models in this splendid $15 blue serge suit for $9.50.

Men's Suits $12.50 Made to Order

Tomorrow morning will start the fourth week of this remarkable sale of made-to-order suits for $12.50. The carload of woollens is being cut up as quickly as busy shears can accomplish it. Many lots are selling out, but the assortment is still large, and there are a great many pretty patterns to select from, so book your orders without further delay.

A Special Sale of Stylish Trimmed Hats

We confidently believe—and our belief is the result of personal investigation and comparison—that this is the most remarkable value ever offered.

At the popular prices of $3.75, $4.35 and $4.95 we will show tomorrow hundreds of fascinatingly beautiful hats—many being copies of highest-class imported models. The range of shapes include every new concept of fashion—the trimmings are dainty flowers, foliage, wings, quills, velvets and ribbons. The straw hats are of a texture commonly found in hats at two and three times our price.

MATCHLESS VALUE is not the term with which to describe these exquisite hats—adjectives far stronger would still fail to do them justice.

DENY CHARGES AND ALLEGATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Browne Talk of Trouble With Dr. Smith of Alameda.

More and more bitter grows the trouble between Dr. W. O. Smith of Alameda and F. R. Browne. Browne and his wife indignantly deny all the charges and allegations which have grown out of the encounter.

Friends of the doctor had said that the Browne had not lived happily together and there was considerable trouble between the couple in Alameda boarding houses. Mrs. Browne said positively that she and her husband had lived very happily together since their marriage, and in this she was corroborated by Browne. They denied further that they ever lived in boarding houses in Alameda and only once did they dwell in a private family and that was immediately after the San Francisco fire in 1906.

As to the statement of Dr. Smith that he was knocked down but once in the battle on the street, Browne remarked he was willing to let it go at that, if the doctor really thinks he was felled but once. He added, however, that the physician must have felt that it was more like a hundred times.

Yesterday afternoon the Brownes were threatened, Mrs. Browne with an attack on her reputation and the husband with bodily violence. The threats were made over the telephone from Alameda, and were to the effect that if Mrs. Browne said any more about the affair her reputation would be blackened. She said that the man speaking was a coward, particularly as he refused to give his name. The speaker over the telephone also said to her that if Browne made any further trouble he would be beaten to death in Alameda. Browne paid no attention to the threats, remarking he was not afraid of violence, as he already had demonstrated he could take care of himself.

IN APPRECIATION OF GOOD WORK

Directors of Chamber of Commerce Praise Oakland's Fleet Reception Committee.

The directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, appreciating the large amount of time and energy devoted by a large number of public citizens to the entertainment of the members of the visiting fleet, and appreciating that in many instances those labors were performed at a financial loss to the members of the committee, have expressed their appreciation in a most emphatic manner.

To the Official Committee on Reception and Entertainment of the United States Navy—Gentlemen: At a meeting of the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, By reason of the gratuitous services of members of the committee appointed by His Honor, Mayor Frank K. Mott, to receive and entertain the members of the Atlantic fleet, and the fact that the committee was enabled to entertain with credit to the city, a vast number of officers and men of the fleet, as well as many strangers in the city; and

Whereas, Such entertainment has largely advertised Oakland as a progressive and hospitable community and afforded pleasure to many thousands of people; therefore, be it

Resolved, By unanimous vote of the directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce in meeting assembled, that the thanks of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce be tendered said committee, together with an expression of appreciation of the efforts of the members thereof for their meritorious work and display of civic pride; and further be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

The document is signed by F. A. Leach Jr., president, and Edwin Stearns, secretary, of the Chamber of Commerce.

MINSTRELS AT THE MACDONOUGH

"Any way every one in my minstrel company is a better actor than Hamlet was. He was no actor. That's as sure a thing as the old fashioned way of spelling."

Mr. Lew Dockstader stopped long enough from smearing his face with a handful of unpleasant looking black grease paint to nod his head emphatically two or three times, much like a horse that waits more out.

"Yes, sir," continued the half made up minstrel, addressing himself to a Herald reporter while "making up" in his dressing room in the New York theater, where the minstreels were appearing.

"What I really mean is that the people who play the part are not actors. Not a little bit. Not at all high. I know what I'm talking about, too. I know when a man's an actor."

"And why wasn't Hamlet an actor? Lack of art?"

"Lack of art nothing. Hamlet didn't know when the ghost walked. The rankest kind of an actor knows that I've been a real actor ever since I had any use for government printing on silk paper."

"So you consider minstreels as actors?"

"As actors? Why, we have actors beaten into a souffe, whatever that means; but it sounds good and looks light and tastes funny. Minstreels not only know when the ghost should walk, but the meek and lowly minstrel is the real thing in the actor line. He knows how to get his salary in advance without worry or a message."

Dockstader's Minstreels opened at the Macdonough theater last night before a large audience. The performance will be repeated this evening, tomorrow evening and at the matinee. The minstrel company is the best that has been seen here for a long time.

SEEKS GUARDIANSHIP OVER HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Clara T. Peterson filed a petition today with the Superior Court for letters of guardianship over her husband, John H. Peterson, who is now confined in a private sanatorium at Belmont, San Mateo county. Peterson is afflicted with a mental disease. Mrs. Peterson says that her husband has property near Decoto, which is valued at $25,000. She asks to be appointed her husband's guardian, so that she can manage this property.

APPORTIONS CASH TO CITY FUNDS

Auditing and Finance Committee
Introduces Ordinance to Control Expenditures.

An ordinance establishing separate funds representing the bonded obligations of the city and the several departments requiring municipal expenditures for the fiscal year 1908-1909, was recommended by the auditing and finance committee of the City Council last night.

Distributing Receipts.

The same committee recommended the passage of an ordinance, apportioning as follows all moneys received for the fiscal year, 1908-1909, from the sale of licenses and from courts, boards, officers and employees of the city, excepting such moneys as are apportioned by law or ordinance to other funds: To the fire fund, 25 per cent; police fund, 20 per cent; salary fund, 20 per cent; street fund, 20 per cent; general fund, 10 per cent; and library fund, 5 per cent.

Wharfage and Tolls.

The proposed measure also provides that all moneys collected for wharfage, dockage, tolls, water and rent from city wharves shall be apportioned to the wharf fund.

NERVOUS HEADACHES

Frequently Caused by Mental Overwork.

Can Be Cured Only by Toning up the Nervous System, the Treatment
Which Restored This Young Woman to Health.

One who has not endured the suffering caused by nervous headaches cannot realize the awful agony of its victims.

Worst of all, the ordinary treatment cannot be relied upon to cure nor even to give relief that is permanent. Some doctors will say that if a person is subject to these headaches there is nothing that will prevent their recurrence.

Nervous headaches, as well as neuralgia, are caused by lack of nutrition—the nerves are starved. Feed the nerves by furnishing through the blood the elements which they require and the cause of these nervous troubles is removed. The only way to feed the nerves is through the blood and it is in this way that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have accomplished so many remarkable cures.

Miss F. Mae Markell, of 103 Huestis street, Ithaca, N. Y., says: "I had nervous headaches for several years. They began when I was a student in the high school. I was studying hard, grew pale and thin and my friends were afraid I was going into a decline. I had no appetite, my digestion was poor and I lost in weight. The headaches came on two or three times a week and sometimes every day. They were so severe that quite often I would have to go to bed when I came home from school. My blood was in such a bad condition that my hands were covered with a rash."

"Our family doctor benefited me for a time, but did not seem able to cure me. My grandfather told me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, saying they had helped him. I found that they were helping me and took them until cured. When school opened again I was strong and able to study and have never had the headaches since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. They are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

CITY ENGINEER TO FIGURE ON SEWERS

Ordinance Committee Asks for Area of Piedmont Tributary to Oakland Main.

City Engineer Turner is to be asked by the ordinance and judiciary committee of the City Council to submit figures to it concerning the sewerage into Oakland sewers by Piedmont residents. The proposed ordinance, which would rescind the permission to Piedmont to use Oakland's sewers, came up before the committee last night, but consideration of it was continued until May 23rd.

Turner is to be asked to submit figures to the committee regarding the area of Piedmont and Oakland tributary to the main sewer which carries off Piedmont's sewage, the number of Piedmont and Oakland residents using the sewer and the cost of the new outlet sewer which is being used.

RAILROAD IS CHARGED WITH DISCRIMINATION

Lumber Men Allege Company
Sought to Force Them Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—President Queal invited us to a dinner in Oakland to talk over our business troubles. He did not mince matters. "You might as well sell out," he said, "because in the matter of freight rates we have got your lumber company bottled up."

This was part of the testimony of Messrs. Briford and Cunningham before the State Railroad Commission yesterday. Those two men own the Briford-Cunningham Lumber Company and it has appealed to the commission to reduce the rate of $2.50 a ton which the McCloud River Railroad is charging on lumber shipments.

About two years ago the railroad advanced the rate from $2 to the present figure. Briford and Cunningham claim this rate is exorbitant and was made to force the firm out of the business.

Both the witnesses testified that the McCloud River Railroad and the McCloud Lumber Company have the same set of officers and that the policy of the railroad to advance the rate of the lumber company with which it is allied. Both lumber companies operate in Siskiyou county.

THUGS FOLLOW HIM AND SECURE $300

Cabinet Maker Is Beaten and Robbed While Viewing Chinatown.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—After dogging his footsteps all evening, watching for a favorable opportunity to hold him up, two negroes attacked John Kay, a cabinet maker of 383 Haight street and robbed him of $300 and a gold watch, after which they beat him over the head and left him lying in a dazed condition on the street.

Kay left his home about 9 o'clock in the evening on a sightseeing trip through Chinatown and the Barbary Coast, determined to visit that section of the city during the stay of the feet here. He visited several saloons, and thinks the two negroes must have seen that he had considerable money on his person, as he soon became conscious that they were following him.

To make sure of this he took a devious route, but they still kept after him, and were standing close beside him when he visited Lay Purcell's place on Pacific street. He became nervous at their actions, and thinking to elude them, left by a side door and hurried down towards the waterfront. When he heard hurried footsteps behind him and suddenly felt a blow on the head which felled him to the ground.

The two men then pummeled him severely, took his valuables and fled. It must have been an hour later that the man staggered into the Harbor Police station and told his story to Prison Keeper Ottson. Detectives Conlan and Mackey are working on the case.

STOLEN HORSES AND BUGGY ARE RECOVERED

Constable C. H. Palmer of Martinez acting under advice from Chief of Police Wilson recovered a horse and buggy stolen from the Kentucky stables in this city and a saddle horse which had been stolen from the McAvoy ranch in Redwood canyon on the same day. Palmer found the horse and buggy at Pacheco, it having been sold to J. C. Barnett, of that place by two young men for $40.

It was while Palmer was on his way from Pacheco to Martinez with the horse and buggy that he saw a man riding the horse which had been stolen from the ranch in Redwood canyon. This horse is the property of Dr. J. W. Dodson of 1168 Washington street. The man was taken into custody and gave the name of B. R. Dodson, alleging that he was an uncle of the physician, declaring that he had not stolen the animal and had merely borrowed the animal on which to ride away. It has been learned, however, that he attempted to sell the horse to Tax Collector Friebe for $150.

A Californian's Luck.
"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Buckle's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two days later I was cured of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment. Sold under guarantee at Osgood Bros' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Washington and Twelfth streets."

NOTIFIES HUSBAND SHE WANTS TO LEAVE HIM

Mrs. Frances J. Martin has filed an affidavit in the County's Clerk's office asking that the notice of her suit for divorce against George W. Martin be published. Mrs. Martin claims that her husband deserted her in June, 1905 and that he told her at the time that he was going to leave the United States and never return to her. Mrs. Martin says that Martin is now in Mexico. Martin's sister, Miss Mabel Martin, of 1223 Union street, this city, says that she does not know where her brother is.
